

I am opposed to cell phone usage aboard aircraft during flights. Passengers are too close together to allow adequate privacy while cell phone conversations are taking place. Normal conversations can be held in subdued tones, but cell phone conversations must often be held in elevated volume to be heard. If allowed such conversations will create an unpleasant, intrusive atmosphere during flight.

Please do not allow them!